Building Strong Catholic Families

Family life teaches us many things. It is often at home that we learn practical skills such as cooking, riding a bike, and making repairs. We also learn about caring at home (sharing, forgiving, or loving). Love is the most important thing a family can share with one another. Jesus tried to teach his disciples how to love others beyond those who are closest to them. Jesus tells them to love even their enemies. As members of God’s family, we are called to do the same thing. Jesus knows that we are human and will not always love correctly. Jesus wants us to love others as if they were Jesus himself. If we reach out in love to others, we are doing exactly what Jesus did. That is what perfection looks like. Pray the Act of Love.

A Year of Coming to Know God

Forty days after the Resurrection, Christ returned into Heaven, to be with His Father and reign in glory. There, He acts as our Intercessor. That means that as our human representative before God, He pleads for us, on our behalf. And since He’s God and Man, He has a connection to both parties, and can continue His work of bringing both together. Of course, even though Christ’s followers aren’t divine and human, we can also share Christ’s work of praying to God on behalf of others. And, the closer we get to Christ, the more powerful our intercession becomes, which is why the prayers of Mary and the saints are the most powerful, because they’re the closest to Christ! Also, although Jesus has gone up into Heaven, He will come again someday. We are again awaiting the coming of the Messiah – but this time He will come in glory and power, to manifest His perfect Reign over all things.
