OCTOBER 16, 2022

NEXT WEEKEND, October 23rd, we will celebrate World Mission Sunday. Pope Francis invites the entire Church to support mission dioceses in Africa, Asia, the Pacific Islands, and parts of Latin America and Europe, where priests, religious and lay leaders serve the world's most vulnerable communities. Family Connection

Children nag because it works. Parents, like the judge in the parable, often get worn down by the persistence of their children asking for things large and small. Nagging is not a positive trait, to be sure. The confidence and the persistence behind this behavior, however, confidence in the goodness of the giver and the tenacity to stay in the relationship, are traits worth emulating in our relationship with God.

Read together Luke 18:1-8. Talk about appropriate ways to make needs and desires known to one another and to God in prayer. Recall that God wants to answer our prayers. As a family, offer your needs as prayers of peti-

Recognize God in your Ordinary Moments
Sparking Holiness

As the seasons change, a lot of us like to clean out our homes and unload some of the junk we've acquired over the summer. One trendy approach to decluttering is the Marie Kondo method, named after the author who popularized it. Overly simplified, it's a process that compels you to go through your closets, your garage, your basement—all the places you collect the dreaded "stuff." As you do so, you hold up the items and ask yourself: "Does it spark joy?"

It's a question that is bold in its simplicity. In answering, you're supposed to go with your gut. If it's a quick "yes, it sparks joy," the item should be kept. If the answer is no, it gets tossed.

There are people in life who will support our efforts to do God's will. There are those who will, as Paul says, "convince, reprimand, (and) encourage," unafraid of the reaction we give them. There are those who will shore up our defenses when the battle goes longer than we thought.

The same goes for hobbies and pastimes. There are those that will ennoble our minds and bring us closer to God. And there are those that will drain our funds and our free time, with nothing to show for it.

During the autumn months, don't just declutter your basement in preparation for the hauling out of the Christmas ornaments. Take stock of the people and pursuits that make up your life. With each one, ask yourself: "Does it spark holiness?"

If the answer is yes, thank God that our help is from the Lord, who made heaven and earth. If the answer is no, maybe it's time to declutter. —Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

Our Parish Mission Statement

We, the people of Blessed Trinity Parish, come from diverse backgrounds and are working together to learn, live and spread the Roman Catholic Faith. We support one another on this journey of faith by studying the Gospel, celebrating the sacraments, especially the Eucharist, and nurturing the spiritual growth of all. Our pledge is to consistently strive to build an ever-stronger parish family where the word of God is proclaimed, studied, and integrated into daily living, where we worship in prayer and in sacrament the presence of God in our midst, and where we witness the Gospel through our actions of care and concern for the needs of those around us.

NEWS & NOTES....

Beginning on Saturday, Nov. 5th, we will host a post-Mass COFFEE HOUR downstairs at St. Mary Magdalene. All parishioners are invited to come and enjoy fellowship and hors d'oeuvres. Future Coffee Hours will be planned for the 1st Saturday of each month. We are seeking teams of 2-3 volunteers to take turns hosting these monthly get togethers. Please consider helping. Building Strong Catholic Families

Parents are mortified when their children act greedy in front of guests. We are constantly reminding our children to say, "Please" and "Thank You". Gratitude is a virtue and like all virtues grows when we practice the virtue. In this age of consumerism and the "me-centered" focus of today's culture, we must refrain from feelings of self-entitlement. Materialism and consumerism prevent us from enjoying and being appreciative of all that we have. We cannot think that we have a right to demand without giving anything in return and without giving thanks for all we are. Some ways to practice gratitude: Grace before all meals, Giving thanks to God for the many blessings we have, focusing on the good in our lives and the good in others, Not lamenting or complain about the things they do not have, and Appreciating others and the things they do for us to name a few. What are some ways your family can practice and grow in the virtue of gratitude.

A Year of Coming to Know God What Reason tells us about God. When we talk about "reason" in this context, we're talking about our natural human intelligence. Our ability to make observations and draw inferences from our common experiences. Reason can come to know that God exists in two ways: First: By looking at the external world. Second: By looking at the human person
