Fr. Mike's Message...

Advent 2022

One of the cool things about Advent this year is that, because Christmas falls on a Sunday, we actually get the full four-week Advent experience (as opposed to next year, when Christmas falls on Monday, and we only get three weeks and one day). This means that today marks the exact half-way point of Advent. Since we are now at the midpoint of Advent, it might be helpful to take stock of where we are, how things have been going so far, and what we can do as we go into the second half.

On the First Sunday of Advent, I mentioned that, in many ways, Advent is a journey, similar to the journey that we go through during Lent. This is a journey during which we are preparing our hearts to meet Christ. The first part of Advent is a time when we look forward to the Second Coming of Christ, and although we most likely won't be around for the Second Coming, at some point all of us will meet Christ face to face when our time on Earth is finished. This is why, during the hustle and bustle of the holiday season, we need to take some quiet time to be with the Lord.

With all of the time needed to put up decorations, bake treats, and buy gifts, it's easy to lose track of time. It's easy to lose sight of that journey that we are on. But again, as we are halfway through Advent, this is the perfect opportunity to reassess and rededicate ourselves to that journey. If we haven't been spending as much time as we would like in prayer, or if we haven't yet availed ourselves of the Sacrament of Penance, or if we feel as if we haven't done enough charitable works, it's not too late. The more we are able to dedicate ourselves to the true spirit of Advent, the better our Christmas celebration will be.

My brothers and sisters, as we continue through this Advent season, may we continue to remember the true meaning of this season, a season of expectant longing, a season of hope, a season of joyfully anticipating the coming of Christ. Merry Christmas!

NEWS & NOTES....

THANKS FOR SUPPORTING THE BAZAAR AT ST. JOHN'S CHURCH

The mini bazaar held on November 19th made the Parish $2,250!

A huge thank-you for all the time the Bazaar Committee put into making so many wonderful crafts, for the individuals who baked delicious cakes and cookies and for those who made the most wonderful soups and chili that were sold that day. And we cannot forget Mr. and Mrs. Clause for taking time out of their busy Christmas schedule to spend some time with us. Most of all, thank you to all who supported our Parrish by attending the event.

Lyons Inter Church Council had a very successful Community Thanksgiving Dinner at the Community Center. We served 84 dinners at the center and delivered 151 dinners to shut ins for a total of 235 Dinners served.

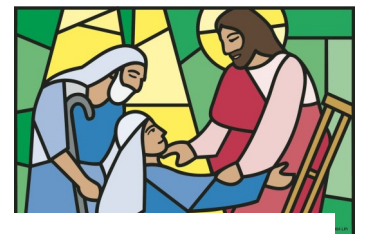

We would like to thank the following St. Michael Parishioners for their efforts and donations: Joanne Blandino, Lisa Donovan, Melody Ellwood, Anthony Lese, Tom Pusateri, Joe Sapp, Mary Ann VanHanehan, Eileen Van Norman, Patty Youngman and all those who attended and supported the annual event.

Cards for Parishioners on the SJTW Christmas Card list need to be returned to the Parish Office by Monday December 19th for distribution before Christmas. Thank You.

THIRD SUNDAY OF ADVENT

For the respect and nurturing of our environment.

Our Parish Mission Statement

We, the people of Blessed Trinity Parish, come from diverse backgrounds and are working together to learn, live and spread the Roman Catholic Faith. We support one another on this journey of faith by studying the Gospel, celebrating the sacraments, especially the Eucharist, and nurturing the spiritual growth of all. Our pledge is to consistently strive to build an ever-stronger parish family where the word of God is proclaimed, studied, and integrated into daily living, where we worship in prayer and in sacrament the presence of God in our midst, and where we witness the Gospel through our actions of care and concern for the needs of those around us.

HOPE. LOVE. JOY. PEACE.

ATTENTION BOOK LOVERS: On Friday, January 13th, we will be starting a ladies weekly morning book group at St. Mary Magdalene, 9:15-11:00 a.m. All are invited! The first book we will read aloud together is My Heart Will Triumph by Mirjana Soldo, a Medjugore visionary with an absolutely fascinating story. For more info or to purchase an advance copy for $10, please contact Jill Lee at 315-744-4932. Consider joining and increasing our devotion to the Blessed Mother together!

The third Sunday of Advent is Gaudete Sunday and is meant to remind us of the joy that the world experienced at the birth of Jesus, as well as the joy that the faithful have reached the midpoint of Advent.

Building Strong Catholic Families

It is easy to look at our world and become discouraged by the apparent absence of God and signs of God's salvation. Advent, however, is a season of hope, in which we acknowledge that salvation is both mysteriously present, even in our world, and yet to be fulfilled. Read together today's Gospel. Think about John's question to Jesus: Are you the One? Jesus does not answer directly, but points to the signs of the kingdom present in his midst. Together as a family, look through the newspaper for signs of hope that God is at work in our world. Pray that the world will know God's salvation by praying together the Lord's Prayer.

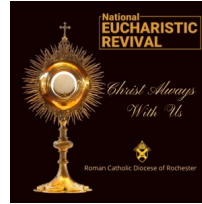

A Year of Coming to Know God

Who is Jesus Christ? Jesus Christ is God become man. He is the second, eternal, divine person in the Trinity, and a Jewish man born of Mary around the beginning of the first century A.D. How did this happen? How did God become man? We use the term Incarnation to designate the event of God becoming man. Although "incarnate" means "in the flesh," Jesus Christ has not only flesh, but a whole human nature: body and soul. He's completely God, and completely man. He is One Person with Two Natures.
